

COLORADO ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

CEHA Annual Education Conference (AEC)

AEC Mission

The mission of the Annual Education Conference is to provide high quality education opportunities while creating an environment that will develop, connect and build relationships between those who work collaboratively in the diverse sectors of environmental health.

AEC Objectives

- Provide high quality education opportunities:
 - Research, network and strive to identify emerging environmental health issues and topics of importance to CEHA membership and attendees.
 - Bring forth respected leaders to share their expertise in an educational setting.
 - Provide dynamic sessions with attendee participation.
 - Provide education sessions that enhance and build the skills of the attendees.
- Develop leaders and connect attendees:
 - Provide education sessions that enhance and build the leadership skills of the attendees.
 - Provide social opportunities for attendees to network have fellowship and share information.
 - Bridge together environmental industry and environmental health.
 - Promote interaction with sustaining members.
 - Build upon and foster a diverse network of attendees among Planning Committee members, Board members, other health and environment professionals and the community.
- Expand outside of the bubble:
 - Challenge the process and bring forth new ideas.
 - Incorporate all aspects of environmental health and reach out to potential new members to expand membership.
 - Partner, when possible, with identified organizations that enhance the realm of environmental health.
- Hold a sustainable conference:
 - Provide the people and financial resources to assure the continuation of the AEC and its mission.
 - Utilize services, products and accommodations that support sustainability and minimize CEHA's environmental impact.
 - Maintain emerging information and awareness of sustainability efforts with membership and attendees.
- Make the conference stick:
 - Provide fun activities and entertainment for attendees to unwind.
 - Ensure the conference logistics enhance the overall experience.
 - Make the memorable happen!